Saragoſſa, July 24. N. S.

THE King of Spain has been received here with all imaginable Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Affection. The 20th Inſtant an Officer arrived here from the Earl of Galway, who left his Excellency with the Portugueſe Army 4 days before at Guadalaxara. His Catholick Majeſty having ſent his Foot before, began his March this day with the Horſe, in order to join the Earl of Galway: And we have received Advice, That the Earl of Peterborow is alſo marching towards Guadalaxara with a conſiderable Body of Horſe and Foot. We have an Account from Rouſſillon, That an Infectious Diſtemper reigns in thoſe Parts; that the Gariſon of Roſes is not free from it; and that there is good Reaſon to hope that that Place will ſhortly fall into the Hands of our Troops which were left behind to block it up, the Gariſon being reduced to Streights for want of divers Neceſſaries.

From on board Her Majeſty's Fleet commanded by Sir John Leake in Alicant-Road, July 31. O. S. The 28th paſt we took the Town of Alicant by Storm, which we found in a great meaſure deſtroyed by the Cannon and Bombs from the Fleet. Brigadier Mahoni, who commands the Gariſon, retired with his Men into the Caſtle; but we ply them ſo warmly with our Cannon and Mortars, that in all probability we ſhall be Maſters of it in a very ſhort time.

Venice, Aug. 13. Our Letters from Lombardy give an Account, That the Imperial Army under the Command of Prince Eugene had taken Carpi and Corregio, and was ſet down before Reggio. They had removed their Pontoons from the Adige to the Po, in order to lay Bridges over that River. The Prince of Heſſe is marched from the Veroneſe with 5000 Men to Valeſſo on the Mincio, whither the reſt of his Troops are to follow him. The Duke of Orleans with the French Army continued at Guaſtalla, his Left Wing extending to the Po, and his Right to the Croſtolo. He has laid ſeveral Bridges over the Po, and has ſent his heavy Bagage to Cremona; And fearing that Place may be attacked by the Imperialiſts, has, for the better ſecuring it, cauſed the Sluices to be opened, and the adjacent Country to be laid under Water. General Toralba with the Spaniſh Troops was poſted along the Oglio near Palazzuolo; and General Medavi was marching with a Detachment from the Duke of Orleans's Army to join him, and enable him to make head againſt the Prince of Heſſe, whoſe Deſign ſeems to be to advance thro' the Breſcian towards the Milaneze.

Vienna, Auguſt 14. The 9th Inſtant Count Rechteren, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, left this Place, in order to return to Holland. The 11th the Prince of Lorrain ſet out from hence for his Biſhoprick of Oſnabrug: He ſtands a Candidate to ſucceed in the See of Munſter, where the Chapter is to proceed to an Election the 26th Inſtant. The 12th a Party of Hungarians, commanded by Baron Orzkai, paſſed the River Mark, and committed ſome Diſorders on the Frontiers of Moravia; but were ſoon obliged to retire. Yeſterday a Body of 8000 Men, whereof 1000 are Germans, and the reſt Croats, Walachians and Raſcians, commanded by General Palfi, joined Field Marſhal General Staremberg at Brugg on the River Leitha, who intends to march out of the Lines to morrow; And it is generally believed that he deſigns to relieve Gran, which Place has been beſieged by the Malecontents ever ſince the beginning of this Month, Prince Ragotzi being in Perſon before it. We have no late Advices from the Imperial Army in Tranſilvania, under the Command of General Rabutin, which was to march from thence the 25th paſt. Our Letters from Italy give an Account that the Imperial Army under Prince Eugene paſſed the Secchia at St. Martins the 29th paſt; and that on the 5th Inſtant he made himſelf Maſter of Carpi di Modena, where he met with very little Reſiſtance, about 300 of the Enemy who were in Gariſon there ſurrendring themſelves Priſoners of War. The day following he encamped between Reggio and Novellara, within 2 Miles of the French Army, which lay between Guaſtalla and Gualtieri.

Hanover, Auguſt 27. N. S. The King of Pruſſia and the Prince Royal his Son arrived at Fernhauſen the 25th Inſtant. The Elector of Hanover met him a German Mile beyond that Place, and conducted his Majeſty to the Apartment which had been prepared for his Reception. His Majeſty proceeds to morrow towards Berlin; but the Prince Royal his Son intends to continue at this Court ſome time longer.

Falmouth, Aug. 24. The King Charles the Third, a Dutch Privateer, ſailed hence the 22d Inſtant to cruiſe. At the ſame time came in the Tuſcany Galley, Thomas Panuell, and the Pearl Galley, Benjamin Brewer, Commanders, both belonging to London, and homeward bound with Oyl, Wine and other Goods, from Leghorne; and they ſailed again laſt Night, in order to proceed on their Voyage

Plimouth, Auguſt 25. Yeſterday ſailed hence two Dutch Men of War, with 40 Sail of Merchant-men, ſome bound to London, the reſt for Holland. The ſame day ſailed the Greyhound of London, homeward bound from Guinea.

Dartmouth, Aug. 26. A Fleet of Dutch Prizes and Coaſters from Falmouth and Plimouth, under Convoy of ſome Dutch Men of War and Privateers, paſſed by our Harbour this Morning, and was joined by 6 Prizes, which had been ſent in here at ſeveral times by the Dutch Privateers.

Yarmouth, Aug. 26. A Fleet of laden Colliers paſſed thro' our Road yeſterday to the Southward. Several light Colliers are lately come in from the Southward, which are detained here by contrary Wind.

Portſmouth, Aug. 27. Her Majeſty's Ship the Rye, Captain Vernon Commander, arrived yeſterday at Spithead from the Fleet under Sir John Leake, and brings an Account of their having taken the Town of Alicant; and that the Caſtle would in all probability be ſoon obliged to ſurrender. Divers Merchant-men, bound for the River, paſſed by this Port at the ſame time to the Eaſtward.

Windſor, Aug. 23. Her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to conſtitute the Rt. Hon. Thomas Lord Wharton Warden, Chief Juſtice, and Juſtice in Eyre, of all Her Majeſty's Foreſts, Chaſes, Parks and Warrens, on this ſide Trent.
